

Conversation Questions

1. After reading Matthew 20:1-16, do you relate with the vineyard workers or the owner's point of view?
2. Are you more prone to view want justice now or be content with delayed justice? Why?
3. Name a current situation where you remain in bitterness and "grumbling" at God - and are impatient at how long it takes for others to get what they deserve.
4. Have you ever experienced mercy for yourself but others to get what they deserved?
5. Why do you think people (and Christians in particular) still struggle with this?
6. Does God giving us the gift of salvation impact your view of justice?